

Central Line-Associated Bloodstream Infection (CLABSI)

is a major patient safety issue affecting high risk patients

Does your patient have a CLABSI?

- Laboratory confirmed bloodstream infection
- Central line in place for >48 hours

CLABSI can be prevented with effective surveillance and infection prevention and control strategies

