FREE PUBLIC LECTURE: Monday, 30 September 2013

The Third Healthcare Revolution
Professor Sir Muir Gray

“Healthcare's perfect storm - rising need and demand with no more resources. Welcome to the Third Healthcare Revolution!”

The Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care invites you to a public lecture by Professor Sir Muir Gray – a pioneer in the evidence-based health care movement.

Sir Muir believes we are in the midst of a Third Healthcare Revolution driven by citizens, knowledge and the internet.

Despite the significant clinical advances of the last 50 years, health services are faced with the same persistent problems: patient harm, waste, unwarranted variation, inequity, and failure to prevent the preventable. Health services are also faced with the new challenges of rising demand and resource constraints.

Join us to hear Sir Muir’s vision for the Third Healthcare Revolution, and how it can overcome these challenges.

DATE: Monday, 30 September 2013
TIME: 5:30pm to 6:30pm (refreshments from 5:00pm)
VENUE: Rydges World Square, 389 Pitt Street, Sydney
RSVP: By Friday, 20 September 2013 by emailing ACSQHEvents@safetyandquality.gov.au

About Professor Sir Muir Gray CBE
Sir Muir has worked in public health for over 40 years. During this time he has been involved in various significant public health achievements including the establishment of Britain’s breast and cervical cancer screening programs.

Sir Muir is currently a Consultant in Public Health at the University of Oxford Hospitals NHS Trust. He is also the Director of Better Value Healthcare, an organisation whose mission is to increase value for individual patients and populations by systems development and culture change.

Sir Muir is also the Director of Knowledge into Action, a charity which supports the National Campaign for Walking.

* Source: Better Value Healthcare, www.bvhc.co.uk